

IT'S THE WORLD'S OLDEST SPARKLING WINE...

(Can you guess what it is?)

...BUT IT'S NOT CHAMPAGNE.

CLUE #1: BORN BY ACCIDENT.

In 1531 (long before Dom Pérignon), French monks stored their wine during a freezing winter.

The cold put the yeast to sleep.

Spring woke it back up.

The result? Spontaneous, untamed bubbles.

CLUE #2: IT WEARS A BEER CAP.

No corks. No wire cages.

It is bottled before the first fermentation finishes.

The dead yeast is left inside, making it beautifully cloudy, raw, and unfiltered.

Yes, really.

CLUE #3: THE ANTI-SNOB BUBBLY.

If traditional Champagne is a luxury Rolex...
This drink is a colorful Swatch.

[The Rolex]

- 2 Fermentations
- 5-6 atm pressure
- Clear & Precise

[The Swatch]

- 1 Fermentation

- 2-3 atm pressure

- Unpredictable & Wild

FUN!

EASY!

REAL!

Lower alcohol. Softer bubbles. Pure, unedited nature trapped in a bottle.
